Bishop's Annual Appeal
2010 Report

to give thanks in all things

Dear colleagues and companions in ministry,

Gratitude. It is what fills my prayers for you as I send you this Annual Report of the 2010 Bishop's Annual Appeal, describing the ministries supported by your generous participation in last year's Appeal and the work of Episcopal Community Services (ECS). Gratitude is what motivates the young people whose mission work your contributions support, what encourages the lay interns and recently ordained clergy your gifts employ, and what is kindled in the hearts of those whose basic needs are met by your largesse, through parish-based ministries and community agencies buoyed by ECS.

Gratitude is also what inspires me week after week—gratitude for your companionship, gratitude for the challenges and opportunities that bring us together in common service, and gratitude for the creativity and commitment of the many communicants of the Diocese of Ohio who convert these funds into tangible acts of compassion and justice on a daily basis.

St. Paul, in his first letter to the Christian community in Thessalonica, admonished them, "In all things give thanks." As we prepare to launch the 2011 Appeal, whose theme is "To Give Thanks in All Things," I pray that we take these words to heart, and that for each of us, our thanks to God for the comfort and challenge of God's love will inspire continued and munificent participation in supporting our diocesan ministries. As well, I pray that the ears of your hearts will be open to the ceaseless word of gratitude that God has for each of you, for the countless things, big and small, that you do to bring heaven to earth every day.

Please know of my deep thanks for your part in the fruitful results of the 2010 Bishop's Annual Appeal, and my anticipatory gratitude for your thoughtful consideration of the 2011 Appeal.

Gratefully,

The Rt. Rev. Mark Hollingsworth, Jr.
Bishop of Ohio

blessings in a backpack

All of the children of Marion-Sterling Elementary School depend on their school for breakfast and lunch throughout the week. Teachers noticed that as the week progressed, children began to hoard their food. The children stuffed their pockets with the federally funded free breakfast and lunch offerings so that they and their families had something to eat over the weekend. In January 2010, Trinity Cathedral in Cleveland, a neighbor to Marion-Sterling School, launched Blessings in a Backpack.

Each Friday, children of families in need receive backpacks filled with healthy food (enough to feed a family of four), menus and nutritional information to promote health and wellness. On Sundays, volunteers gather at Trinity Cathedral to collect that week's donations. Oatmeal, whole wheat bread, spaghetti, chopped tomatoes, tuna and apples are some of the items on the program's shopping list. On Friday, volunteers assemble the Blessings in a Backpack and deliver them to the school. When school is not in session, parents pick up the backpacks at the church.

Principal Sondra Powers listed hunger among the major challenges facing an already challenged K-8 school. In addition to the problem of hunger, many of the children and families also face health issues such as obesity, diabetes and high blood pressure. The Blessings in a Backpack program addresses both hunger and health issues.

Blessings in a Backpack received an $8,310 grant from Episcopal Community Services. Volunteers, donations and funds from the Bishop's Appeal make this vital ministry possible.

finding stability, finding work

A single mother of three children, Christal came to the transitional housing program of Family Outreach Community United Services (FOCUS) of Toledo in January of 2009. FOCUS helped Christal to find housing and stabilize her family's living conditions, so she could pursue her associate's degree in medical assistantship through Southwestern College. Even then, Christal still found it difficult to gain employment, so she enrolled in the State Tested Nurse's Aid (STNA) certification program.

While finishing her externship during the week, Christal went to STNA classes on weekends, so that her mother could help watch the children. Despite a heavy schedule she completed the program with flying colors. Christal passed her STNA test in December 2010 and found a job in January. Having added the STNA certification, she enhanced her employability and confidence in offering more to potential employers. Christal now works as a nursing assistant and hopes to transition to a medical assistant position with her current employer.

FOCUS of Toledo serves the forgotten in their community. Their Steps to Home Housing Program supports homeless families like Christal's and individuals with little or no income, oftentimes with issues related to domestic violence, mental health, or substance abuse. Steps to Home provides housing, service support, employment training, as well as regular and ongoing partnership to overcome obstacles to economic and social stability.

In 2007, with help from an Episcopal Community Services grant, FOCUS Steps to Home Housing began an emphasis on increasing participants' ability to seek and maintain higher paying employment. ECS funds help to pay enrollment fees for STNA classes.

Steps to Home Housing received a grant of $6,100 from the Bishop's Appeal. Because of that grant Christal and her family, and others like her, are living with increased dignity and independence.

raising up vocations

By the Rev. Christopher "Zeke" Coughlin

I would not be a priest without the support of this diocese and the Bishop's Annual Appeal. Funding from the appeal has built the foundation for my entire ministry and, simply put, I would not be where I am nor do what I do without it.

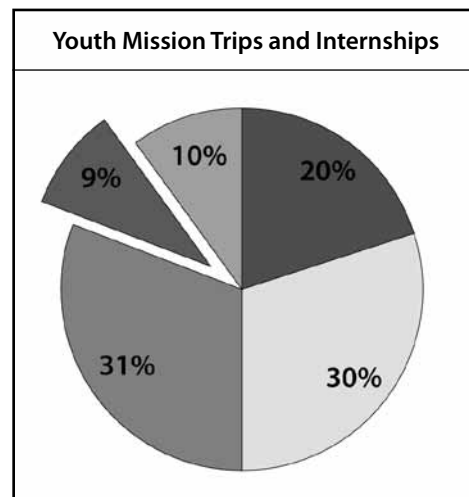

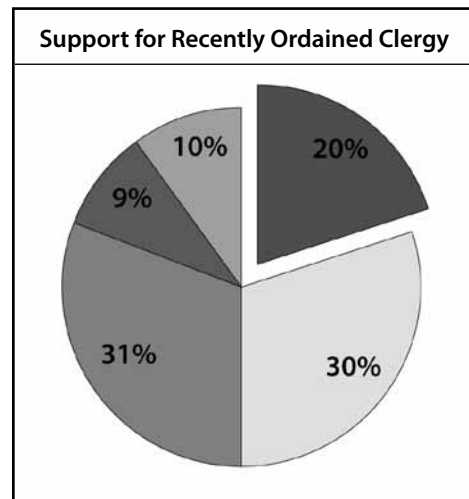

A seminary education was invaluable to my future work as a priest of the Church, but even more crucial to my vocation was how I was formed by living in a seminary community. Sharing daily prayer, living space, and growth experiences with my fellow seminarians taught me more about priestly living than I ever could have learned from a textbook or a satellite course. Tuition is only part of the cost of seminary. The opportunity to live within this sort of community requires relocation, housing, and many other costs, which would have been too financially cumbersome for my family without the help I received from the diocese.

Throughout my long process toward ordination, I have also participated in many ministries that have been funded by the Bishop's Annual Appeal. From diocesan youth events to mission trips in the mountains of Kentucky, I worked with dozens of young Christians who themselves would not have been able to afford the experiences of learning, growing in Christ, and serving God's people without the help they received from the appeal.

And now, my position as associate rector at St. James in Boardman and the work I am doing with youth ministry in the Southeast Mission Area would be impossible without diocesan funding.

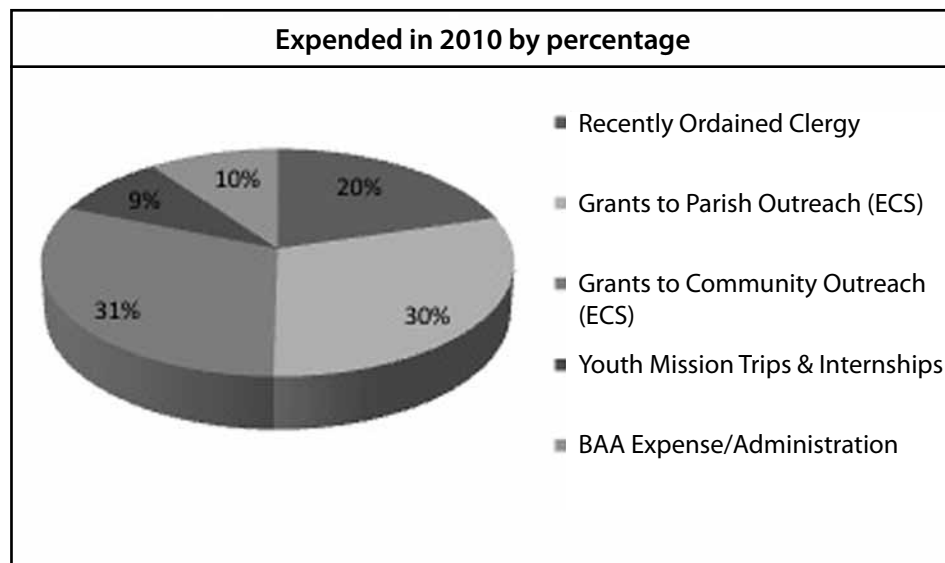

It is humbling to realize that much of my career, and whatever good I may be able to do through it, has been made possible by those men and women who give generously to the Bishop's Annual Appeal. I look forward to a lifetime of service to the Church that has been so gracious in raising me up to work within it.

(Coughlin was ordained Saturday, April 16, 2011.)

a general thanksgiving

Accept, O Lord, our thanks and praise for all that you have done for us. We thank you for the splendor of the whole creation, for the beauty of this world, for the wonder of life, and for the mystery of love.

We thank you for the blessing of family and friends, and for the loving care which surrounds us on every side.

We thank you for setting us at tasks which demand our best efforts, and for leading us to accomplishments which satisfy and delight us.

We thank you also for those disappointments and failures that lead us to acknowledge our dependence on you alone.

Above all, we thank you for your Son Jesus Christ; for the truth of his Word and the example of his life; for his steadfast obedience, by which he overcame temptation; for his dying, through which he overcame death; and for his rising to life again, in which we are raised to the life of your kingdom.

Grant us the gift of your Spirit, that we may know him and make him known; and through him, at all times and in all places, may give thanks to you in all things. Amen. (BCP p. 836)
